Hey Sonia,

This looks good to me. Only a few comments:

- Site is capitalized in some sentences and not others. I believe it should be lowercased throughout.
- When we write about EPA, we usually just write EPA and not “the EPA” – not sure if it’s different for press releases, but wanted to point it out.
- NJDEP is spelled out twice before you use the acronym only.

No big deal edits – only suggestions. Thanks so much for giving me an opportunity to review.

I hope you’re well!
Shereen

Hi Shereen!

I hope your summer is going well. 😊

SEMD approved the attached draft press release on the PRAP for Riverside Industrial Park. I would appreciate your review and input since you’re the site’s CIC and an excellent writer.

Let me know what you think. Thanks!
